

You are invited to the 2009 Boarding Schools Fair
in Beijing, China

Sunday, November 1, 2009
14:30 – 17:00
China World Hotel

Now in its fifteenth year, the Asia Fairs bring together families and representatives from boarding schools across the United States, Canada, and abroad. There are numerous advantages to attending this fair, including:

- Exclusive one-on-one access to college-prep boarding school representatives
- Information and advice about the application process and advantages of boarding schools
- Take-home copies of view books and admission form packets from participating schools
- Free admission to the fair

Parents should bring their children to meet the admission officers. For a list of schools represented at the fair and to register, please visit:

TABS.org/Beijing

For additional information, please contact Steve Banks at banks@tabs.org or at +1 828-258-5354, extension 308.